

Parenting from The Tree of Life

Parenting from The Tree of Life

Parenting from The Tree of Life

*Part One
Life, Children, and Relationships*

*Part One
Life, Children, and Relationships*

*Part One
Life, Children, and Relationships*

Gary and Anne Marie Ezzo

Gary and Anne Marie Ezzo

Gary and Anne Marie Ezzo

Parenting from the Tree of Life is a brand new parenting course from the authors of the popular Growing Kids Gods Way. It is a six week foundational course on which parents can build a strong, healthy and God centred family.

Parenting from the Tree of Life is a brand new parenting course from the authors of the popular Growing Kids Gods Way. It is a six week foundational course on which parents can build a strong, healthy and God centred family.

Parenting from the Tree of Life is a brand new parenting course from the authors of the popular Growing Kids Gods Way. It is a six week foundational course on which parents can build a strong, healthy and God centred family.

Who is Parenting from the Tree of Life - Life, Children and relationships Course for?

Parents of children aged 3 to 13.

Where possible we would like to encourage both Dad & Mum to attend together.

This material is suitable for Single and Double parent families in fact any primary carers are welcome (this includes grandparents)

Parenting from the Tree of Life

No parent possesses an omnipresent power to predict all parenting outcomes, let alone control the future. Yet there is one truth that abides, parents are the greatest influence on their children.

In Part One of this series, Gary and Anne Marie Ezzo, along with Rich and Julie Young, look at the relational challenges of contemporary parenthood and offer practical advice that can help Mums and Dads maximise their influence to the benefit of their children.

Who is Parenting from the Tree of Life - Life, Children and relationships Course for?

Parents of children aged 3 to 13.

Where possible we would like to encourage both Dad & Mum to attend together.

This material is suitable for Single and Double parent families in fact any primary carers are welcome (this includes grandparents)

Parenting from the Tree of Life

No parent possesses an omnipresent power to predict all parenting outcomes, let alone control the future. Yet there is one truth that abides, parents are the greatest influence on their children.

In Part One of this series, Gary and Anne Marie Ezzo, along with Rich and Julie Young, look at the relational challenges of contemporary parenthood and offer practical advice that can help Mums and Dads maximise their influence to the benefit of their children.

Who is Parenting from the Tree of Life - Life, Children and relationships Course for?

Parents of children aged 3 to 13.

Where possible we would like to encourage both Dad & Mum to attend together.

This material is suitable for Single and Double parent families in fact any primary carers are welcome (this includes grandparents)

Parenting from the Tree of Life

No parent possesses an omnipresent power to predict all parenting outcomes, let alone control the future. Yet there is one truth that abides, parents are the greatest influence on their children.

In Part One of this series, Gary and Anne Marie Ezzo, along with Rich and Julie Young, look at the relational challenges of contemporary parenthood and offer practical advice that can help Mums and Dads maximise their influence to the benefit of their children.

Your local contact is:

or alternatively email enquiries@gfi.org.au

Your local contact is:

or alternatively email enquiries@gfi.org.au

Your local contact is:

or alternatively email enquiries@gfi.org.au